

Beets

Fresh Michigan-grown beets are available late July to late October.

Beets are a good source of vitamin C, and their greens are an excellent source of vitamin A.

Beet roots can be red, purple, golden, white or a mixture of colors.